Queen For
1970-1971

Joliet Junior College is not today what it was yesterday nor what it will be tomorrow. It is, rather a center for the free-flow and exchange of ideas; a pursuit conducted in the classroom, as well as in the arena of extra-curricular activities. Joliet Junior College strives to broaden its students' outlooks and in so doing, remains of necessity, in a state of constant and enlightening flux.

This year's SHIELD is concerned with what Joliet Junior College IS.

JuCo Relives Dog Patch, U.S.A.

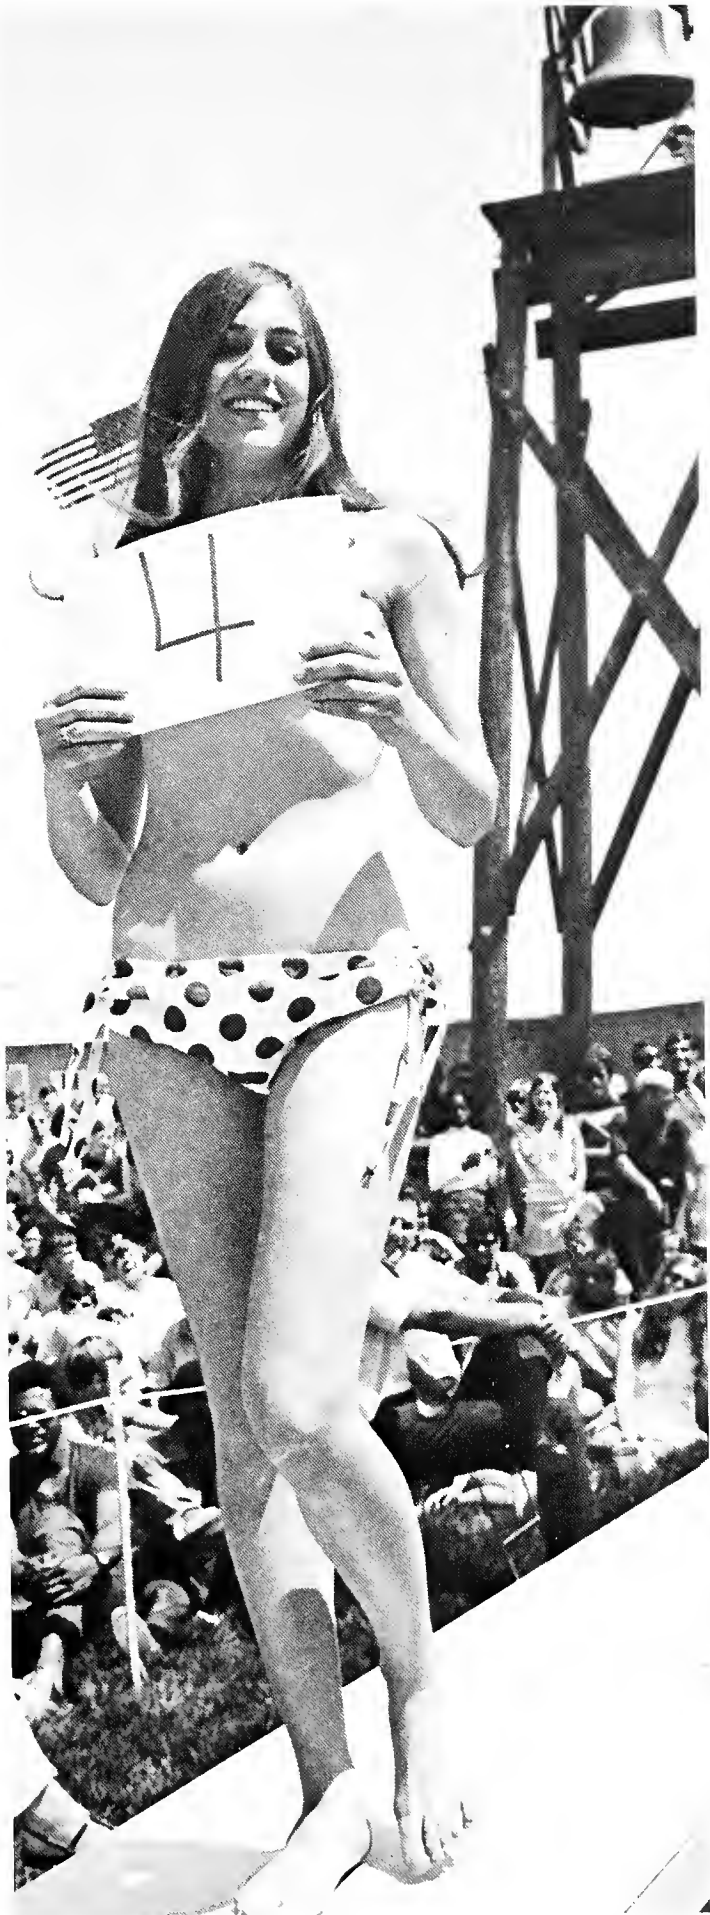

Students Agricultural Association sponsored the annual Sadie Hawkins Week in the spring. The week's events consisted of Dogpatch's favorite past-times such as: the egg throw, aimed at the faculty; the greased pig chase; the Miss Dogpatch Bikini pageant and the Sadie Hawkins shindig held in the school gym.

Debbie Gilbert was the proud winner of the Miss Bikini title with Maureen Kennedy and Kathy Remus as runner-ups.

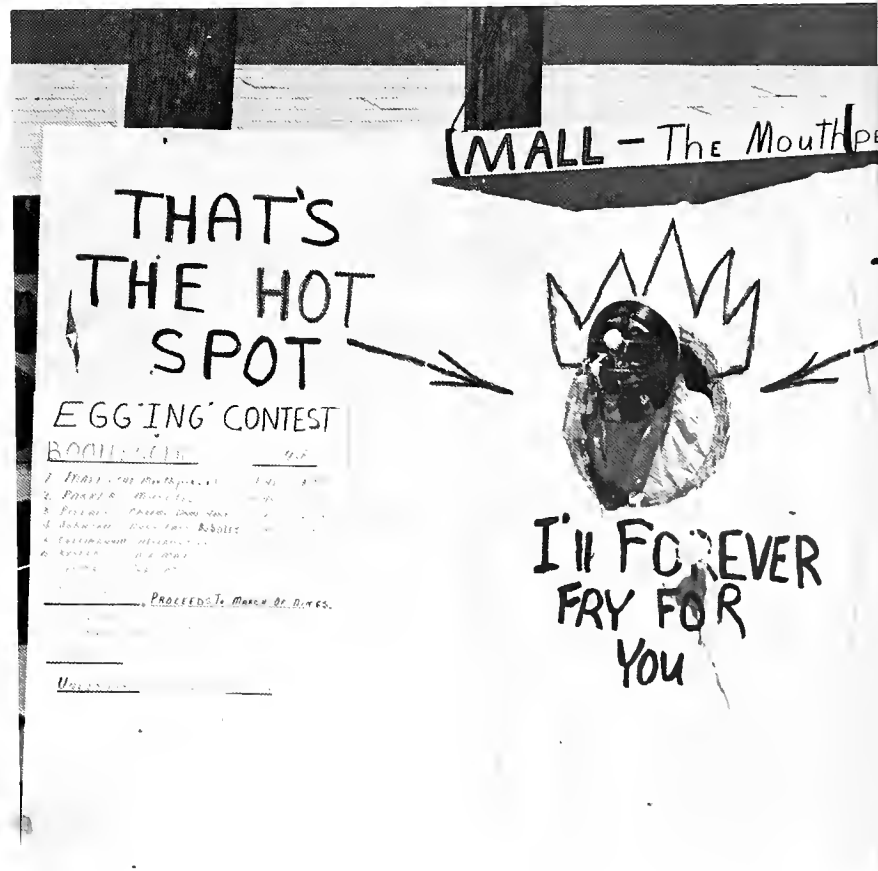

All proceeds from the week's events activities were donated to the March of Dimes.

“Rhapsody In Blue” Highlights Spring

300 couples attended the Joliet Junior College's Spring Formal "Rhapsody in Blue" which was held May 9 at the Saber Room in Hickory Hills.

Dancing was held in two different rooms. One room had a combo and the other, an orchestra. The decoration theme of two shades of blue was stressed in both rooms, as well as on tickets and bids.

Kent Heatherwick and Joyce Barfield were co-chairmen for the 1970 formal.

Trotter, King, Selected

Joliet Junior College held its annual commencement exercises on June 7, 1970, at Inwood Recreation Center. While it was the 54th graduation, it was the first graduating class from the new campus.

Out of 325 graduates, Deborah Trotter, and Jeffrey King were selected as student speakers. King spoke on the accomplishments of the class and Miss Trotter on the hopes and ideals of the graduates.

Following the ceremony, a poolside reception was held for graduates, relatives, and friends.

Spring, Summer Affect Campus Life

Whether they were trying to get ahead, to catch up, or avoid the draft, 1,590 students continued at Juco for the college's once a year "vacation semester" sale of grade points and hours to the ambitious, lazy, and degree plan conscious students.

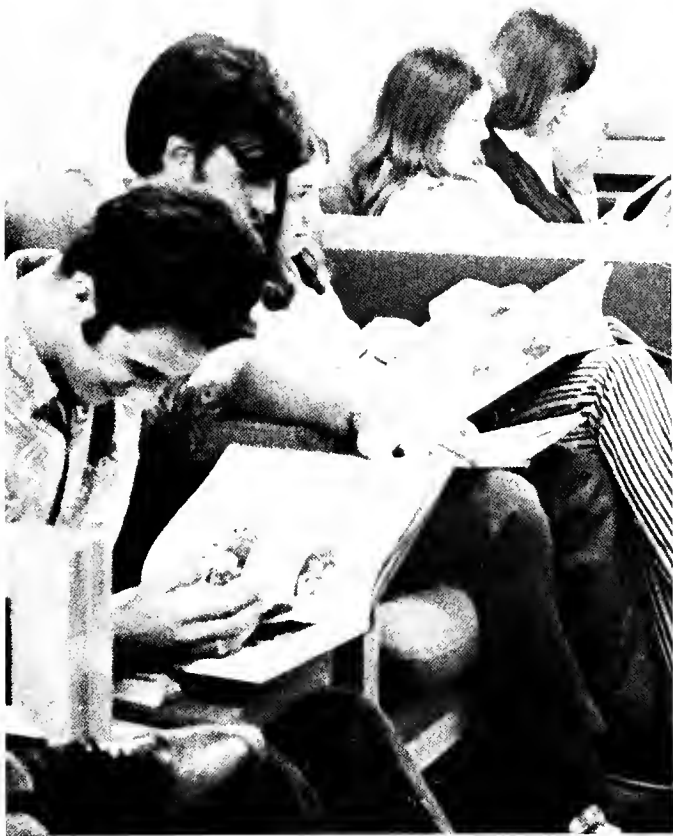

Those who continued after spring semester were joined by freshmen who wanted a glimpse of college life before fully committing themselves for the fall.

Most students spent the summer working full or part time at jobs such as clerking, construction, life guarding, camp counseling, and secretarial.

Sylvia Mejia (right) finds work to be a useful pastime of her summer. During the summer, students (below) get together for a picnic and recall the past year.

Orientation Fun Week Starts School Year

Orientation and Freshman Fun Week was the result of the planning by the sophomores from the Summer Task Force.

Orientation not only became a time to plan your schedule, but, also, the time to be confronted by sophomores who demanded, very nicely, for you to put on your freshman beanie and name card.

Fun Week became a hassle to those freshmen who could not remember their schedule, while being asked who was president of JJC in 1934. By the way Kangaroo Court was packed it seemed that quite a few freshmen did not know the answers.

The tug-of-war and school picnic completed fun week and all were willing to forget all grudges from the past week. Melody Joy Hart (right) was the end result of the freshman-sophomore tug-of-war; Mr. Paul Johnson (below) helped an incoming freshman construct her school schedule.

Pam Garrison (left) relates some of her personal shortcomings from freshman Fun Week to her friends; Sophomores (below) referee the pie-eating contest at the school picnic.

Spirited Bonfire Tops Activities

A trilogy of spirit, support, and success prevailed throughout the 1970 Homecoming week of "C.O.D. — Collect On Delivery from College of DuPage."

Vicious attempts at a car smash, hell bent drivers of the tricycle races, riotous pep assemblies, and pig hungry hog roasters were activities incorporated into the week.

Highlighting the festivities was the coronation of the Royalty and Court. Before a blazing fire and amid 500 howling Wolves, Debbie Zumbahlen and Earl Crisp were announced as Queen and King for 1970-71.

Joining the reigning couple as court were Charlyn Palmer, Gary Bittner, Roseanne Petrun-garo, Mike O'Connell, Debbie Corn, and Kevin Balog.

Crisp, Zumbahlen Reign Over Week

Throughout "C.O.D. Week", in addition to the planned activities for each day, there was a frenzied flurry of secretive activity that each club responded to. For at halftime ceremonies, votes were to be tallied and results announced as to the winner of the float competition . . . The caravan that circled the Joliet loop and the stadium track was the product of clever imagination and many hours of hard work; hours that finally paid off in the transformation from a car to a mobile fantasy. The float most deserving of first place was awarded to SAA.

The final success was the marked victory over the College of DuPage 31-0. A post game celebration took place as the Homecoming Dance was held.

Keen strategy and brute strength (upper right) were vital factors in the Aggies' success over P.E. majors during the halftime pushball contest; feelings of happiness and victory settled upon the faces of Queen Debbie Zumbahlen and King Earl Crisp. (right).

JJC'ers Involved in Myriad of Conferences

Fifty three members of College Congress attended a Leadership Conference at George Williams College near Lake Geneva, Wisconsin, October 30-31. Under the direction of Stan Dale, WLS-FM disc jockey, the students participated in sessions dealing with human relations and sensitivity.

On October 2-3, a Student Involvement Conference was held, also at George Williams. Seven schools from the midwestern area, including JJC, tried to discover the art of communication.

Publications Conferences were held nationally, and JJC participated in them. Students participated in a conference held at Vincennes University October 22-23. Editors also attended the National Press Conference in Minneapolis, Minnesota, November 1-6. Here they heard speakers and took part in workshops and rap sessions.

William A. "Bill" Lavery, a politically active student, attended the White House Conference on Children held at the White House in December.

Bill Bixby Highlights Fall Dinner Dance

Pheasant Run's New Orleans Room provided the setting for the autumn dinner dance held November 21.

The theme of "A Fall Fantasy" was carried out by the usage of seasonal table and lobby arrangements contrasting with twinkling lights.

10:00 marked the highlight of the season. After weeks of campaigns and judging, Bill Bixby, of television's "The Courtship of Eddie's Father," and appearing at the Pheasant Run Playhouse, crowned Kris Kemp as the 1971 Miss Shield.

A new tradition was started with the '71 pageant. The six finalists voted among themselves for the girl they felt most deserving the Shield title; Paula Ehresman was chosen the premier Miss Congeniality.

Pat Horrigan served as chairman of the Miss Shield pageant and Sue Jones headed the dinner dance committees.

Bond, Spurrllows Spotlight Fall 1970

John Shields (above) and Dave Koehler resolved a crisis in a highpoint from "The Best Man"; Julian Bond (right) stimulated controversial debate following his speech on equal rights.

College Congress scheduled fall activities to help bring area citizens into campus life.

Paul Shyre's dramatic production, "A Whitman Portrait", presented by a professional Broadway company, was held November 14 at the Pershing School Auditorium. The Spurrllows, a nationally acclaimed singing group, also played at Pershing. A member of this talented group is Debbie Sharpe, a 1970 graduate of Joliet East High School.

Julian Bond, a Georgia legislator and one of the top political figures in the country, spoke to a packed house November 11.

A turning point concerning the future of JJC took place November 15 as the ground breaking ceremony for the permanent campus was held.

The weekend of December 4-5-6 was highlighted by Gore Vidal's "The Best Man" presented by the JC Players. A cast of 15 played to capacity crowds all three nights.

Wisconsin Slopes Proved Challenging

The slopes at Wisconsin's Skyline and Telemark provided the challenges necessary to both experienced and inexperienced skiers on the annual between semesters ski trips. JJC ski enthusiasts were housed at the Cliff House Resort at Skyline and in the Youth Hostel at Telemark, both of which provided skiers with the atmosphere required to round out the busy days.

Fireplaces, guitars and folk-singing ended evening activities at early hours as skiers anticipated another day of.....

Looking every bit the part of experts (top) skiers at Telemark paused for the photographer before taking to the slopes; Pete Neff, (right) exhibited flawless techniques as he capitalized on the instructions received previous to the day's skiing; Steve Jehle (below) challenged Skyline's toughest and came out "on top"; OOOOOOOOPS!!! College Congress Initiates Activity Period

College Congress, the governing board of JJC, started an activity period, held twice a week. During this Tuesday-Thursday 11-12 period, no classes were held so as to give time for activities such as club and faculty meetings.

Besides writing a new constitution, Congress organized several new standing committees; education and culture, publicity, school furnishings, and a presidential selection committee.

The Student Achievement Recognition Awards selection was organized by Congress. After a written application and a series of interviews, two students were chosen on the basis of their advancement towards a goal. John Shields and Kris Kemp were selected as the recipients of this award.

Congress also spearheaded some of the special activities such as the fall and spring picnics, a fun night, the spring concert, to feature "Trilogy" and the spring formal.

Swinging the president's gavel was Mickey Bowlan. Other officers were vice president Don Waldvogel, Kris Kemp, secretary, and treasurer Kevin Sparenberg.

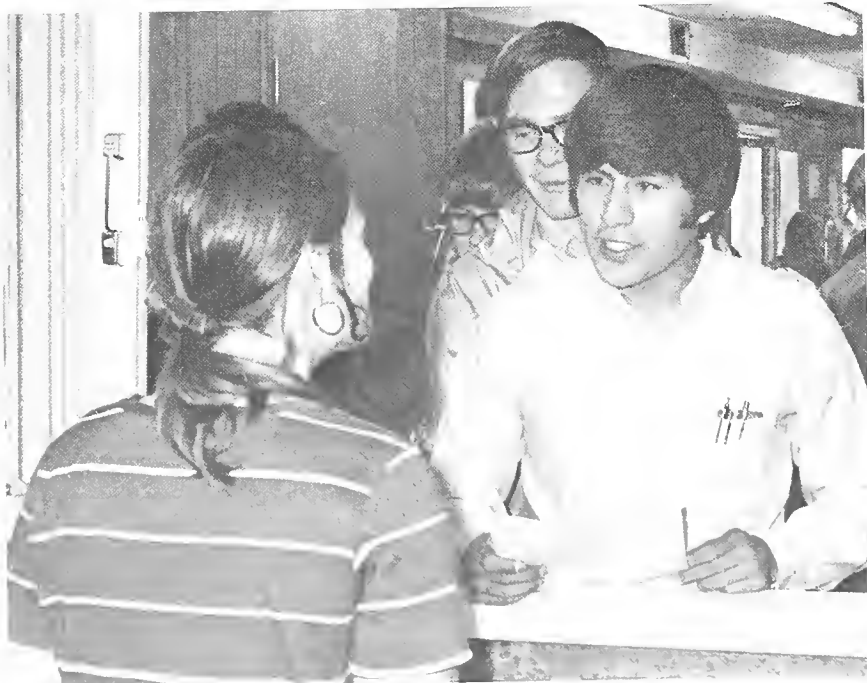

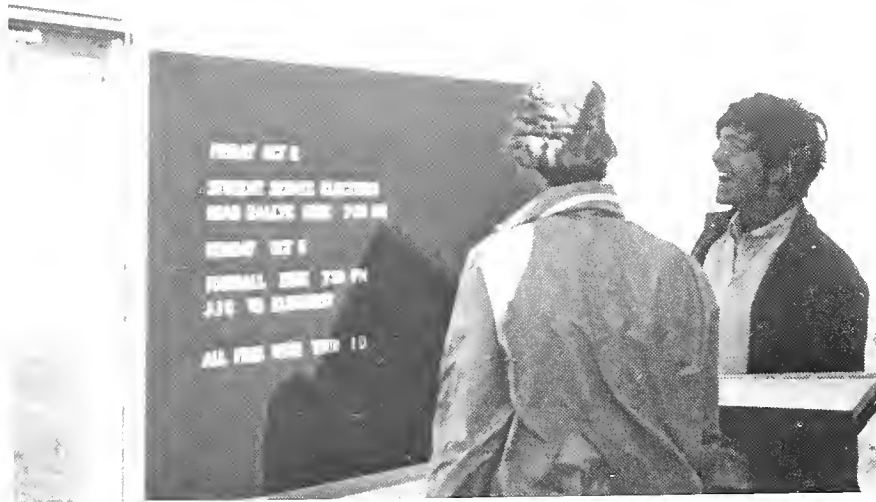

Mr. Henry Pillard and Miss Jayne Grant advised this group.

Art, Music Clubs Participate in Spring Festival

Concert Choir, a group of hard working vocalists, under the direction of Helmut Sienknecht, staged several concerts for both the campus and the community.

Several soloists were featured in the Christmas concert of Handel's MESSIAH. Choir members also performed in the Veterans Day Program and the memorial service for Wayne Coleman and Ed Delaney.

Madrigals, the finest voices of the choir, were selected following tryouts at the beginning of the year. This select group met twice a week in order to achieve perfection as a unit from the near or total perfection of their voices.

Under the direction of president Diane Krawchuck, Art Club members designed sets for the fall production of THE BEST MAN.

Field trips were taken to the Art Institute as well as to the art departments of Northern Illinois University and the University of Illinois, as well as holding several art exhibits.

Both Concert Choir and Art Club participate in the Spring Fine Arts Festival held in May.

Athletic Organizations Promote Sportsmanship

The first undertaking of the new Soccer Club was the acquisition of their own field which members salvaged from a corn field. It took a lot of time and effort but was worthwhile for both the club and the PE department.

The team challenged faculty members to a special Homecoming Week match and defeated them 2-0. Members organized an intramural volleyball team and helped run the bookstore.

Under the Patsy Stevenson's presidency, Women's Recreation Association sponsored a tour of the P.E. department for interested high school students. Members also sponsored an all school ice skating party, also archery and bowling tournaments. WRA presented plaques to the girls most outstanding in sports such as field hockey, volleyball, archery, bowling, baseball, basketball, and others.

Serving the student body and building school spirit represent two of the goals as a member of the Lettermen's Club. Lettermen were responsible for awarding letter jackets to varsity athletes and distributing plaques to the most valuable players in each sport. The club planned a splash party, a talent show, and a gym night.

BSU, Press Club, Promote Ideals

Press Club, primarily involved in promoting journalism, also participated heavily in other school activities. The Autumn Dinner Dance and the Miss Shield Pageant, sponsored by Press Club, were the most successful in years. Members built up the club treasury by selling school pens and stationery as well as student ID pictures.

The club was also responsible for organizing the Press Day held on May 12. This attracted approximately 300 students.

Black Student Union, one of the biggest and strongest organizations on campus, sponsored Black Heritage Week in February. This tribute featured an art exhibit, the SIU Performing Arts Troupe, a choral group, and a Sweetheart Ball. A very handsome program tracing Black History, national, local, and campus was printed and sold. Besides this major project, members supported a free clothing center as well as holding a can drive for needy families.

SPI Sponsors Drug Symposium

Students for Political Involvement sponsored a Drug Symposium. Chief guest was Allen Cohen, a former associate of Timothy Leary.

This organization was responsible for organizing the Cornell University award for essays on the topic "What should be the limits upon the president's authority to commit American combat forces to war without explicit congressional authorizations?" Essays were reviewed by English teachers to check in grammar and composition but not involving correction of content.

Members also campaigned for Adlai Stevenson in his Senate race, and helped publicize Julian Bond. They participated in the JJC Board of Trustees elections business and watched incumbent Daniel Kennedy reelected and Mrs. Judith Baskin seated as the first woman on the Board.

Four Aggies Receive National JC Award

With the development of character and leadership for agriculture as the Student Agricultural Association's primary goal, the men got the year off to a colorful start by capturing first place honors with their homecoming float entry and by successfully electing their candidate, Debbie Zumbahlen, to the position of Homecoming Queen.

An Open House for high school students interested in agriculture was held in November and was attended by over 125 students.

At the annual Christmas luncheon, Paul Duzan was awarded the $500 John Richards agriculture scholarship. Horticulture students John Stevenson and Jerry Riabie received $300 awards from the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America. SAA president Lee McPherson also received recognition by his selection to "Who's Who in American Junior Colleges." Other Aggies receiving this honor were Kevin Sparenberg, Neil Trotter, and Don Waldvogel.

In the spring, SAA sponsored Sadie Hawkins Week and donated all proceeds to the Tri-County March of Dimes.

Fine Arts Serves As Subject for Clubs

Cultural Cinema Club surveyed campus attitudes towards films in an attempt to select the type of films which would have mass appeal. The results of this poll resulted in the scheduling of a dozen films for campus showing. Among these were IN THE HEAT OF THE NIGHT, ALICE'S RESTAURANT, THE THOMAS CROWN AFFAIR, DAYS OF WINE AND ROSES, MEMBER OF THE WEDDING, and THE MISFITS.

Veteran filmmaker Nancy Cissne was a CCC delegate to the national student film festival held in Michigan.

Chess Club activities were directed towards instructing beginning chess players and holding tournaments between experienced players. There was a rumor circulating that the club would take on Troy Community Grade School, the junior high chess champions, but Mr. Tarry Slusher, sponsor, dismissed the rumor as muckraking.

JC Players displayed acting talents of its thespians in the fall production of Gore Vidal's THE BEST MAN. Members provided an entertainment unit at St. Joseph Hospital during the Christmas season, and presented a mini-musical for the grade school PTA in February. Besides several theatre trips, the Players presented a series of play cuts during the Fine Arts Festival.

SSS, Law Enforcement Clubs Prepare Member for Future Careers

The newly established Law Enforcement Club is dedicated to further the professional standards of Law Enforcement, to provide assistance to local law enforcement agencies and to promote greater understanding of the problems and objectives of those agencies devoted to the administration of criminal justice. Members toured both the Cook County Jail and the Illinois Reception and Diagnostic Depot.

The main purpose of the Students of Social Science is to acquaint students majoring in the social sciences with the craft of their field. The club held informal sessions with people knowledgeable in areas such as counseling, teaching, and social work.

Members visited the Oriental Institute among other places of social science interest.

Teachers Club Sponsor Receives National Honor; Nancy Cissne Assumes 1970-71 SHE Presidency

Teacher's Club recruits members planning a career in the field of education — teaching, administration, secretarial, counseling. Social and education oriented activities provided members with professional information and experience and enthusiasm for teaching.

Members participated in the ground breaking, tutored at the Boy's Club and gave a Christmas at Sunny Hill Nursing Home. Eighteen high school Future Teachers of America clubs toured JJC under the direction of president Brenda Gunier. Mrs. Grace Brewer, sponsor, was honored when she was chosen as one of the outstanding figures in American education.

SHE is not a branch chapter of the Women's Liberation Movement. Far from it. Students of Home Economics, under Nancy Cissne's presidency, prepared for their futures by learning about prospective or possible careers. Members heard speakers talk on subjects from proper diets to child raising to birth control to cake decorating to home furnishings.

Nearly, Clearly, and Over 25 Club Has Strong First Year

The Nearly, Clearly, and Over 25 Club was started first semester to help older students adjust to campus life. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Carolyn Engers, the club had several guest speakers as well as Halloween and Christmas parties. Members participated in Transfer Evening and Bring a Friend to School Week. Since one of the purposes of the club was to encourage older people from the community to further their education, members worked on a poll survey and slide series of JJC older students which were presented at Open House functions and various community meetings.

NCO-25 presented a slide series (upper right) on the aspects of JJC to the older student; Discussion proves lively as members (right) plan "Bring a Friend to School Week."

Veteran's Club Presents Memorial Plaque to School

Members of the Veterans' Club aided each other in their readjustment to the demands of education after serving in the military.

Each year the Vets' Club honor those who have given their lives in service to the United States through a program on Veterans' Day. This year the club presented to a college a plaque in remembrance of those honored dead.

Dan Morris (top) presents the memorial plaque to Mr. Douglas Graham on behalf of both the Vets and the student body; Vets (above) show support and enthusiasm as they watch Homecoming parade.

JC Flyers, Motor Sports, Stress Safety

JC Flyers held meetings on Sunday afternoons either at Joliet Airport or Lewis College Airport. When the weather was nice, hundreds of miles of flying over the Joliet area was done.

The Omega Sport Parachute branch of JCF was active under Frank Julian and several students became regular sky divers.

The Flyers were hosted by the FAA at Midway Tower and Radar Room and also had a visit to the Experimental Aircraft Association world headquarters and museum at Milwaukee.

The Motor Sports Club presented numerous road rallies; the purpose being to learn the mechanics of handling a car with maximum safety, to experience correctly the reading of road signs and maps, and to add social life to those students who share a common interest in cars.

SMS Traditional, Yet Innovated

Students of Medical Science celebrated their 23rd year as the oldest extra-curricular organization on campus and the oldest of its kind in the United States.

As it is illegal to take a group to the local hospital to view an autopsy, JJC student John Trusty, a lab employee at St. Joseph Hospital, took a complete slide series of an autopsy and presented them at a regular meeting.

SMS has had over 300 speakers meetings and over this number of field trips. At the end of December, the Will-Grundy Medical Society gave a post-Christmas banquet at the Holiday Inn for JJC medical students.

Besides sponsoring many speakers and clinical films, the club held "Reptile Night." Students handled pythons, boas, and other reptiles and snakes to conquer their fears.

Mr. Edmund Puddicombe is the guiding force behind this organization which has come to be recognized as a landmark at JJC.

Engineers, Computer, and Epicurean Clubs Benefit Both Members and Campus Students

The Epicurean Club came about through the efforts of the students of Culinary Arts. It was formed to create an interest in the pleasure and enjoyment of discriminating food and drink.

The club attended the National Restaurant Association annual convention and featured an exhibit which was placed in competition with other students. They also entered their special sandwich creations in the National Sandwich Idea Contest.

The Engineers Club started early in the year as they took a field trip to IIT and Northwestern's Technological Institute Engineering Open House.

A combined dinner meeting was held with the Joliet Chapter of the Illinois Society of Professional Engineers during National Engineers Week. At this event, Dan Morris was announced as the outstanding engineering student of the year.

The new Computer Club was brimming over with enthusiasm as members spearheaded bus transportation to the Region IV basketball tourney in Bloomington. Members sponsored a Christmas vacation workshop for high school students interested in data processing. They also ran a mock election for US senators, and distributed computerized calendars.

Staffs Strive for Greater Improvements in Publications

The BLAZER, the bi-weekly newspaper, covered school, local, and national news. Some outstanding features included photo essays on the Homecoming scene, the road conditions, a sports round up, and a year end review. Sue Jones served as 1st semester editor and Kim Morris and Jim Thompson, 2nd semester co-editors.

The campus news bulletin, COLLEGE CASUALS, came out MWF under Maggie Vaughan's editorship.

Under the direction of Pat Horrigan, editor in chief, the SHIELD, the yearbook, featured expanded color coverage and special effects.

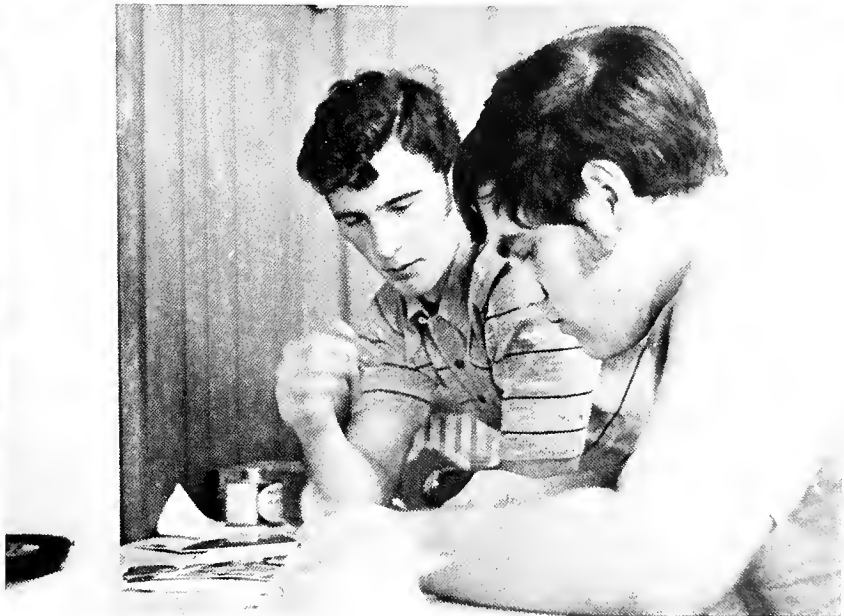

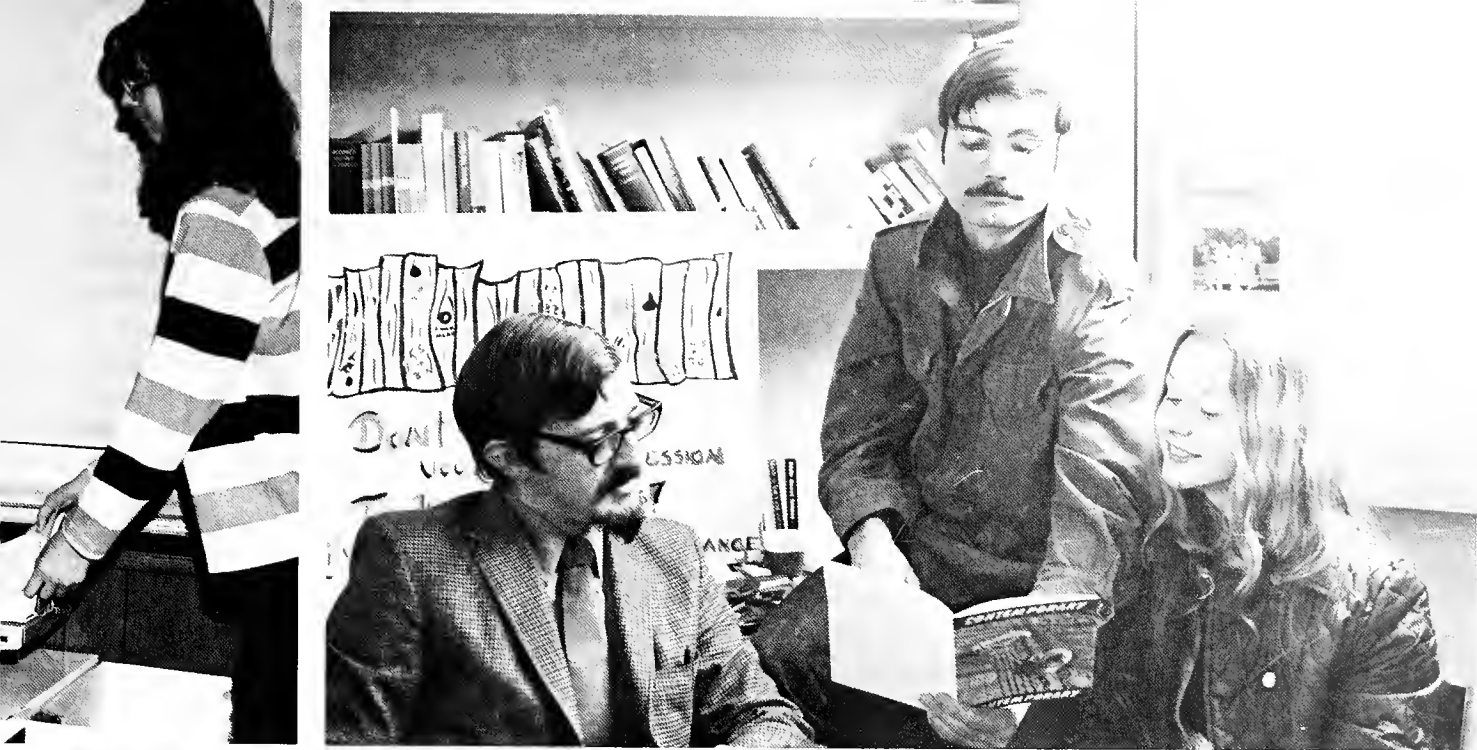

Mrs. Beverly Crouch acted as advisor to all three publications.

CONTEMPORARY, the literary magazine, was sponsored by Mr. Ted Thompson and edited by Carl Daubach and Natalie Williams. It stressed the best original work of students in poetry, drawing, photography, and creative writing.

Wolves Tie for Conference Title

The joint efforts of Gil Bell's coaching, Bob Oberlin's 384 batting average, and the consistent good work of most valuable players John Toth and Shawn James, gave the Wolves a fine season.

JJC's conference record of 6-3 put them into a three way tie for the conference championship. Although it was a close ballgame, the team fell in defeat to Rock Valley 4-3.

Cindermen Stride to 6-2 Season

As a result of total dedication and a desire to win, the 1970 Cindermen experienced one of its finest seasons in JuCo's history.

The team displayed their strong endurance and resistance in defeating six opponents while losing to only two. By beating out scoring teams such as Sauk Valley and Morton Jr. College, the Wolves found themselves in 5th place in the NJC meet.

High scoring runners Earl Crisp and Carlton Quarrels earned the respect of many by placing high in each one's event. Mike O'Connell represented JJC at the National Junior College Track Meet and was recognized as the 6th best pole vaulter in the nation.

Under the guidance of Peter Neff, and led by the smooth playing of Bruce Liker and the powerful strokes of Gary Stanfield, the tennis team achieved an overall 6-5 record while holding a 3-4 conference slate.

Highlighting the season was the duo of Liker and Stanfield, with no previous experience in playing doubles together, winning the Illinois Junior College Tennis Meet, and going to Ocala, Florida where they tied for 18th place in the National Junior College Meet.

Coach Neff, very pleased with the seasons, is looking forward to an even better season this spring.

Golfers Drive to 13-3 Season

Another tremendous season was turned in by Gil Bell's golfers. With many new members and satisfactory weather throughout most of the season, the team proved themselves to be second to none as they placed first in the conference.

Lead by the powerful strokes of Gary Owens and the accurate putting of Bob Hatfield, who placed second in the conference tournament, the golf team managed to overcome Ill. Valley 319-321 in their opening match. This led the way to earn an 4-1 conference record of 13 and 3.

Coach Bell is looking forward to an even better season next year with the return of many lettermen.

It was a hot, humid August day, as the 1970 JJC football team assembled on the field for their first practice. Before the opening calisthenics, coach Jerry Yost stood in front of his new team and simply told them what he expected of them and he knew what they expected of him. This was the beginning of a 5-2-1 season in which the Wolves tied for the conference championship.

Although the team was young and there were many vacancies to be filled. A strong relationship seemed to form among the players and coaches alike, which resulted in absolute confidence in themselves and in each other.

Quarterback Barry Dean displayed this confidence as he led his team downfield many times for a touchdown. While offensive tackle Bob Pearson provided a number of key blocks for runningbacks like Earl Crisp, the team's Most Valuable Player and the 5th rusher in the nation with 1179 yards. Along with Crisp were six other players who were First Team All-Conference choices, and Mike Serena and Tom McKeon obtained this ranking for their 2nd time.

The biggest and most rewarding game came at the end of the season when the Wolves beat previously undefeated Thorton. Thorton, which was also a possible bowl bid; had only once been scored upon on the ground until they played JJC. With many players returning, coach Yost feels that the Wolves will have an even better season next year.

The J.J.C. Harriers, as a result of a one hundred percent team effort, experienced one of their finest seasons in the school's history. With many hours of hard work under their belts, and guided by the coaching of Bill Benner, the runners compiled an over-all record of 11-2.

One unforgettable day was October 24 when the team placed second in the DuPage Invitational and the following week on a cold, wet, Saturday, the team earned 4th place honors in the Region 4th Meet. Coach Banner is very pleased with this year's performance and is awaiting next year's season to start.

Cheerleaders Bolster Enthusiasm

JJC's cheerleaders worked to improve enthusiasm by leading the victory chants at athletic events.

The team was captained by a quartet of sophomores; Paula Ehresman, Diana Frank, Laurie Goodson, and Charlyn Palmer. Frosh Lynda Steinbach and Barbara Vondrasek made up the remainder of the first squad while Kathy Bourg and Sally Ursitti served as alternates. Lee Carmichael was the Wolf mascot.

The girls provided a victory hoop for football season and purchased a new lighter weight uniform for basketball games.

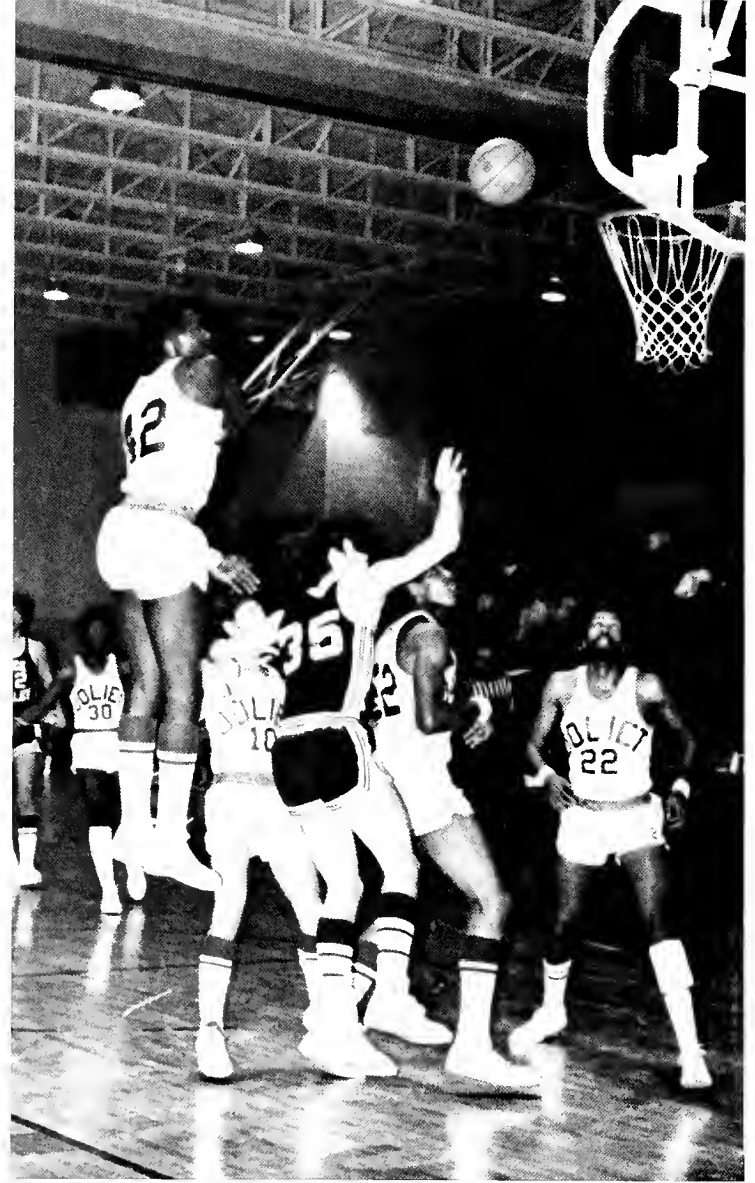

Miss Lottie Skidmore served as faculty sponsor for this bouncing group of purple and white spirit raisers.

Cagers End Conference Play With 7-3 Record

Coached by Tom Kennedy in his first year as a JJC coach, and assisted by Larry Larson, the Wolves' cagers established a 7-3 conference record which gave them third place in the conference and an overall 19-11 slate.

The 1970-71 basketball team was one of the tallest in the college's history and also one of the quickest. Much of this quickness and poise was displayed by sophomore guard Dave Papesh who always seemed to be in the right place at the right time. Sophomore Sylvester Cottrell, the team's 6'6" center, led the team in rebounds through the regular season with 22.8 per game and also averaged just as many points. Other board strength was given by 6'7" freshman Mark Wiater, followed by Gene Sims and Willie Stegall, both 6'4" and in their first year at JJC.

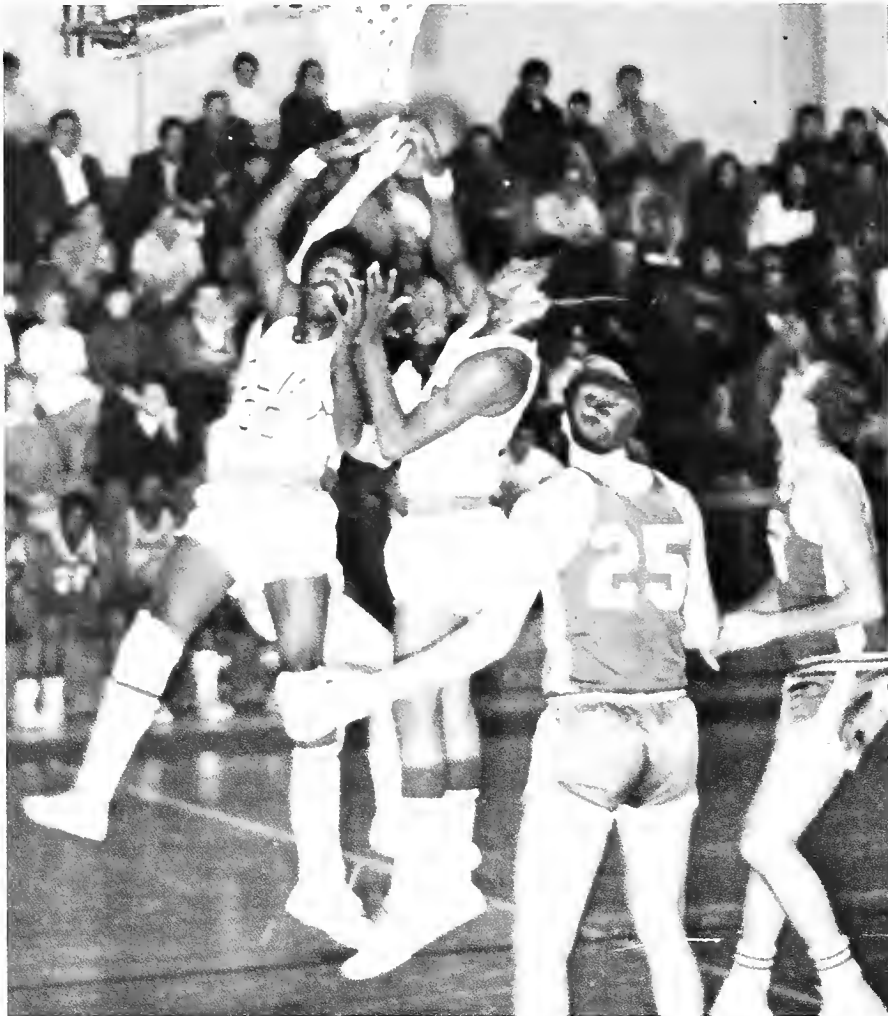

Coach Kennedy said the highlight of the season was their 35 point victory over Rock Valley because it was a total team effort. With the return of 5 freshmen this fall, Kennedy feels next year's team will have a good chance for a conference title.

At N.C.C.C. Conference Wrestling Meet

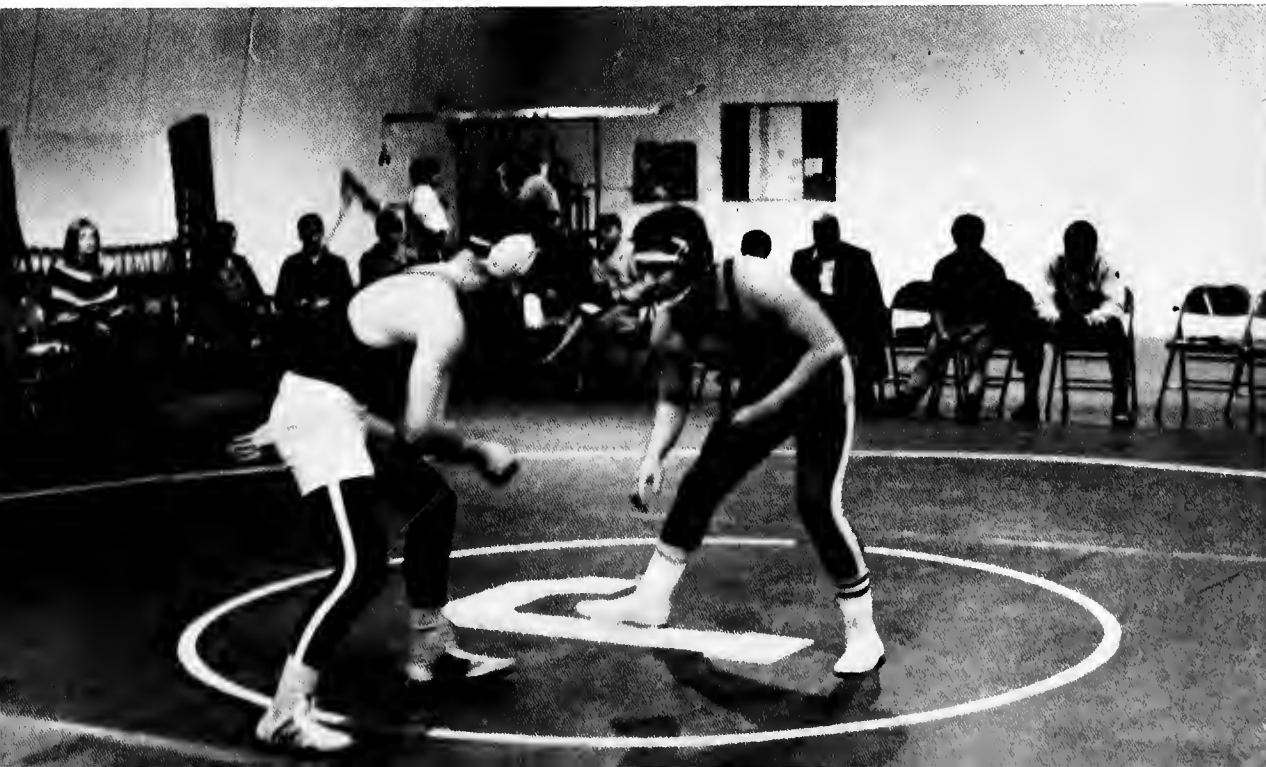

With a conference record of 4-0 and a number of individual tournament championships throughout the season, Juco's wrestling squad had much to be proud of. At the North Central Community College Conference Wrestling Meet, three wrestlers; Manuel Pallcios, Tom Calhoun, and Bruce Bugajski took first place honors.

One of the most exciting matches of the season came in a dual meet against Waubensee in which five Joliet wrestlers pinned their opponents, and the team scored 35 points to their opponent's 13.

Although the squad had a number of graduating sophomores, coach Henry Pillard is confident of another fine season this winter and possibly a conference title.

Intramural Participation and Facilities Increases.

"As the facilities have increased, so has participation. The students have responded very well." This is what Intramural activities of this past year. There were many sports offered and an equal amount in future plans. Some of the main events were flag football, volleyball, table tennis, wrestling, and basketball.

In autumn, flag football was the big attraction with eight teams playing in the tournament-style program. At the end of the season "The Aggies" and "The Beavers" tied for first place with identical records of 5-1-1. Then as the winter weather fell upon the campus, Rend Lake was filled with excitement as many students played volleyball. First place honors for this intramural activity went to "The Bouncers" who compiled a 7-0 slate followed by "The Soccer Club".

variety is the spice of life

part of your life?
Surely there was enough grass
and drugs on campus that you couldn't ignore the situation.*

1. Ryan O'Neal and Ali MacGraw
"Love Story"
2. Barbra Streisand
"The Owl and the Pussycat"
3. Jack Nicholson
"Five Easy Pieces"
4. Dustin Hoffman
"Little Big Man"

"M*A*S*H is the best American war comedy since sound came in."
—Pauline Kael, The New Yorker

Fred Willard in "Spin the Wheel"

Sally Kellerman in "The

...and the ..."

1. The cast from "M*A*S*H"
2. Glenda Jackson "Women in Love"
3. Elliot Gould and Candice Bergen, "Getting Straight"
4. Barbra Streisand, "On a clear day, you can see forever"

Hey,
How about going to a movie?
Sure, what'll we see?
How about a skin flick?
I don't think so
Hey, I've got it! A "youth" film.
"Love Story" or
"M*A*S*H" or
"Five Easy Pieces" or a Dustin Hoffman film or a Barbra Streisand
Great
Seeing is believing

*The student at JJC

*. . . Attaining a goal,
striving for perfection, carving a niche that will be remembered as an example to follow*

Yvonne Conner (above) and Tim Jackson were elected as the new freshman class vice-president and president at the beginning of the second semester; BLAZER editor Jim Thompson interviewed the 1971 Miss America, Phyllis George (right), while she visited Joliet on a promotional tour. The SHIELD salutes pretty girls. Miss America and Miss Peggy Perrine, (lower right) grab an eyeful, guys.

*What Joliet Junior College Is
Has Been Gone Over and Presented.*

Now, What Exactly Has It Been For You As An Individual.

... Maybe College Woke You Up To Life ...

*... Perhaps You Realized That College Wasn't
All That it Was Shaped Up To Be ...*

*... Or Maybe It Was—

... did you realize that college is what YOU as an individual make it? ...

*... Things come and go,
Days, classes, good times fly by; Gone, not forgotten. But thought back on, and remembered.*

Epilogue

It's really hard to sit back and say that it's all over, that the work is finally complete.

It hasn't been an easy year for myself or my staff. In planning the format of the book there was always the question in my mind of whether or not someone would object to certain ideas or comments. Once a theme had been chosen as "What JJC IS," intangible copy was chosen for the opening section, division pages, and closing section. This type of writing was used because it is impossible to relate what exactly a school is with descriptive copy. A freer form of writing was decided upon so as to allow each individual to form his own opinion of JJC.

Before I close I would like to thank my staff for their tremendous help, for without them I would still be laboring over a typewriter or hassling the Wallinger Photographers about why our pictures were always late. I thank Joe Feehan of the Delmar Printing Company for his help and advice and patience with missed deadlines. Finally, a special thanks to advisor Bev Crouch for believing in me and this yearbook.
